

UTILITIES

OUR SERVICES

- ▶ Preliminary Engineering Report/Engineering Report
- ▶ Grant and/or Loan Accrual Services
- ▶ Final Design
- ▶ Plans & Specifications
- ▶ Bidding Phase Services
- ▶ Construction Administration & Observation
- ▶ Surveying & Mapping
- ▶ Geotechnical Investigation
- ▶ Environmental & Wetland Assessment
- ▶ Rate Study & Affordability Analysis
- ▶ Site Inspection & Certification

REACH OUT

www.withersravenel.com

919.469.3340

115 MacKenan Drive
Cary, NC 27511

elevated & ground storage WATER TANKS

Water tanks can maintain reliable water pressure, balance pump operations, provide surge relief, and increase operational flexibility, efficiency, and convenience while reducing power costs. They also provide a redundant source of water during emergencies such as fires, water main breaks, and pump station power outages.

Because water tanks play such an important role in responsible potable water management, WithersRavenel provides a variety of services to help clients protect and maintain these assets. Through periodic evaluations, repair recommendations such as new interior and exterior coatings, and the development of operations and maintenance manuals, we enable clients to meet short- and long-term management goals. We also provide on-call services in the event of emergencies or other unforeseen circumstances.

